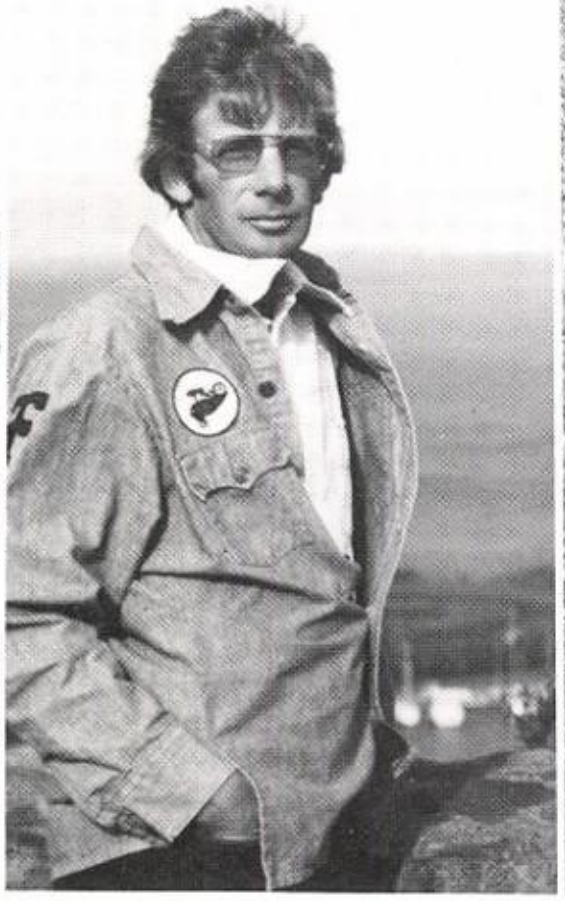
TO OUR PARENTS

We, the Senior Class of 1977, dedicate this annual to our parents in the hope that it will show our love and appreciation for all the help and support they have given us during our years in Eola School.



WITH LOVE

THEY'RE THE GREATEST

CLASSES

SENIORS

The Senior Class of 1977 started together in 1st grade. Enthusiastic, Energetic, and Exasperatic could be their motto.

Class officers are Sharla Jameson, Pres.; Stephen Laza, V-Pres.; Judy Gesch, Sec.; and Freddie Acosta, Treas.

"Busy-Bee" Seniors have pursued various money-making projects. Wayne steered the Notebook and Notepad sales. Johnny became known as "Cookie Man." Stephen ramrodded the Bar-B-Q. Judy and Sharla were champion magazine salesmen earning everyone Sweathog decals for their sweatshirts for the "Six Little Piggy" Halloween Carnival Cake Walk. 1977 will always be remembered as the Cookbook Year. Judy was chairman. Sharla served as Annual Editor; while Freddie counts money and makes bank deposits.

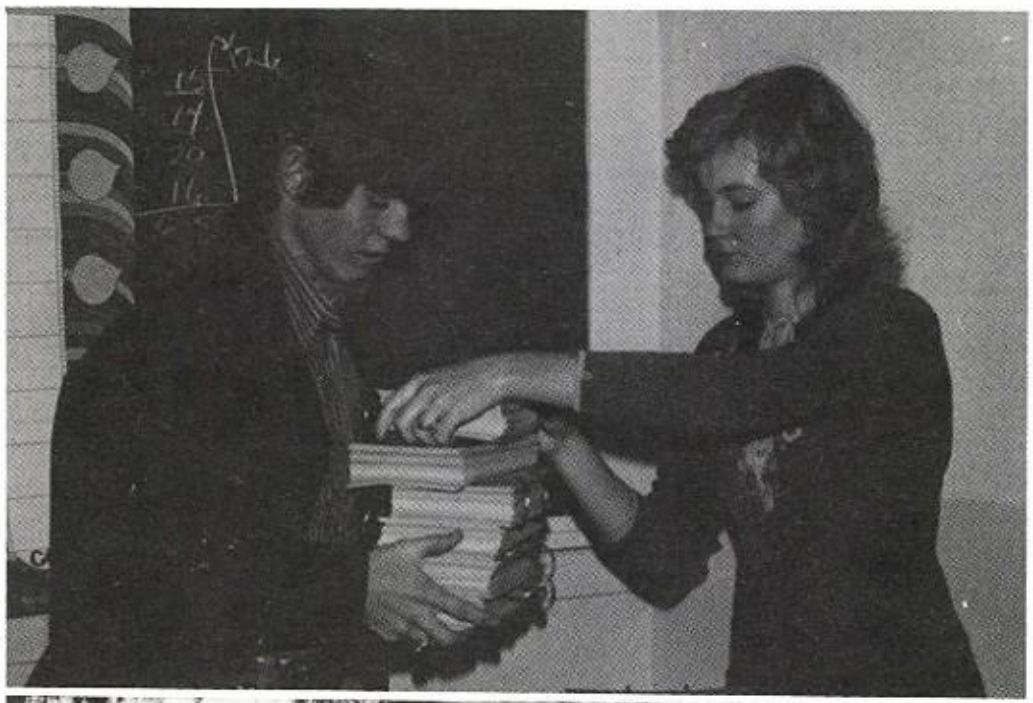
CLASS OF 1977



May 25, 1977--Graduation Day--will end twelve years for six seniors, but not friendships.

Rememberance of good times and old friends will remain forever in memory.

Freddie's ambition is to be an electrician. Just call him the "Fuel adjustment clause."

Judy hopes to put her clothing design ability to work. Haute Coutier--here she comes.

Just follow the bouncing ball! Here comes Sharla. A college education is just incidential to playing basketball. Coaching or accounting is her goal for the future.

You just can't get the farm out of Stephen and Wayne. Maybe it's the dirt they like. Stephen has big plans for raising registered cattle. Good luck!

Johnny plans on becoming the Mr. Big in ginning. Cotton dust and burrs are his THING.

Eola High will be behind, but the future is to be faced with confidence.

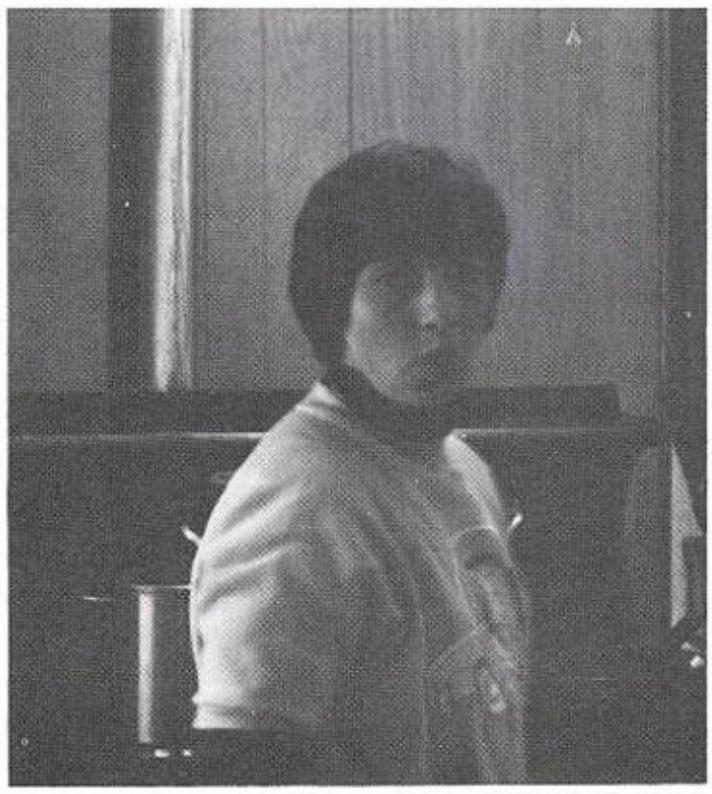
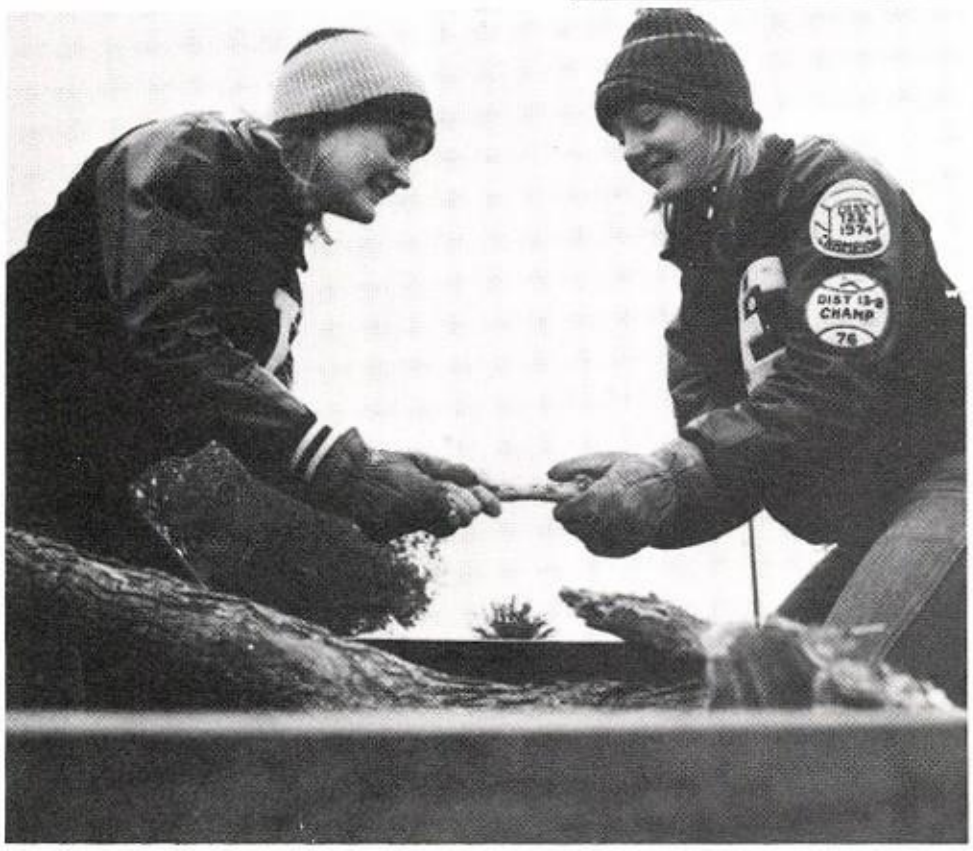
HOMECOMING BAR-B-QUE



It does not snow on November 13--just keep hauling wood!

It was cold and dreary, but the Seniors hauled wood with great anticipation. Even Judy and Sharla managed to team their muscles to lift the heavy wood. Four inches of snow on Friday night left Bar-b-quers cold and disgruntled on Saturday morning.



— cold and snow

We would rather be deer hunting!

Snow and the opening day of deer season cancelled all Homecoming activities except the Bar-B-Que. Thanks to Senior Daddies--Johnny Laza; Fred Acosta; Cohler Jameson--Mr. Little, and just visitors; it all turned out to be a great success.
